Why Attend:

"Last year was my first year attending the CASSC conference in Asilomar. I found the experience to be extremely beneficial to me as a professional who is dedicated to serving our senior community. I really feel that the conference provides a serene environment perfect for learning. The networking opportunities were in abundance and the professionals that I met helped make the experience unforgettable. I came away with many wonderful ideas, an overwhelming sense of purpose and a group of professionals that I now call my friends."
